

The Only Real Estate Company Providing You Maximum Exposure On The Internet

Consumers are online every day using search engines and classified portals to browse homes. In addition to Google, Yahoo!, Trulia and Zillow - there are many more places for consumers to go appearing every day. When you list with me, your property is entered into the Realty World National Listings Distribution Program, giving your property the ultimate exposure it deserves.

Internet use by home buyers increases 6% annually. At this rate of growth, more than 90% of all home buyers in California will be shopping online by 2011. Maximum online exposure is essential to marketing your property to today's home buyers.

Partnerships with top real estate sites

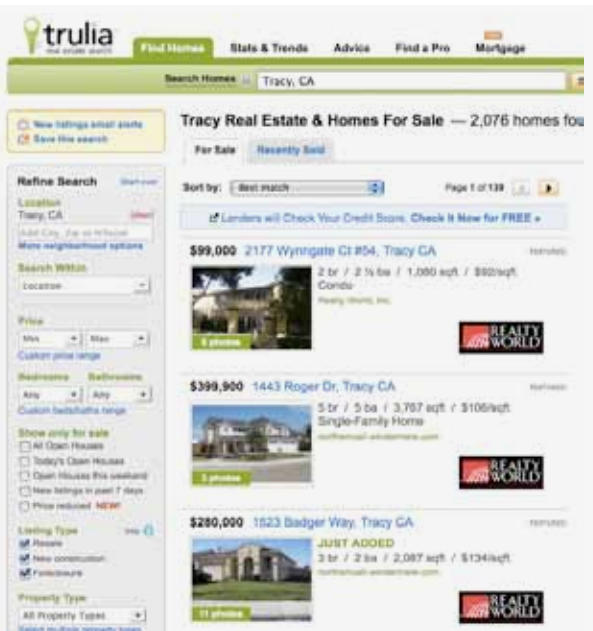

Here's how it works: Within 72 hours of being entered into our proprietary system, your home will be displayed on more than 300 real estate sites nationally. Then, we'll be able to provide you traffic reports to show you how many buyers are looking at your property and from which websites.

Featured Listings program drives more traffic

Realty World listings are part of a "Featured Listings" program with Trulia and Zillow.

This means our listings rank higher in search results than our competitors. It also means up to 500% more buyer traffic for your property.
